statement of reasons

Following strong opposition to the advertising of a proposal to remove parking along the north side of Grenville Drive (between Plymouth Road and Ransum Way) the West Devon Highway and Traffic Order Committee made a decision to introduce an experimental TRO to allow overnight parking on the carriageway on a section of Plymouth Road, with minor alterations to parking on Grenville Drive.

Devon County Council will introduce the restriction on an experimental basis to see if the previous issue of parking on the footway reoccurs and to monitor the impact on this and surrounding roads, and if necessary, minor changes can be made or proposals removed before deciding whether to make permanent changes.

Specifically, the order will avoid danger to persons or other traffic using the road or any other road or for preventing the likelihood of any such danger arising; and it will for preserve or improve the amenities of the area through which the road runs.
